LIBRARY NEWS FROM DEB

Are you an Explorer? Well then come explore the North Hall, specifically the Library. It's not large but does have some good and interesting books. With all the electronic devices, you may have forgotten how to even open and hold a book. I will try and display some books that are good to read and if you have one to suggest, leave a note for me. Any suggestions or comments are also appreciated. My name is Debbie Vogel and I live at Lot 81.
